

Dear colleagues:

As many of you know, from June 30th to July 2nd 2017, the 18th EMDR Europe Conference will take place in Barcelona (Spain). The final date to take advantage of the reduced registration fee is March 31st.

Due to the huge amount of tourists that Barcelona attracts every year, you may encounter accommodation difficulties if you do not reserve your hotel or apartment with enough time, so we encourage you to do this as soon as possible.

We can assure you that your days in Barcelona will be very intense, while delving into EMDR, the Psychotherapy of the 21st Century, and of course while enjoying the company of your colleagues, going out and about in the city, shopping, and just living the city life. Barcelona is cosmopolitan, open, sometimes dazzling, and offers great possibilities to have fun.

In addition to the welcoming cocktail –taking place on Friday night, after the Opening address–, on Saturday night we will be having dinner in a very emblematic location of the city. Amidst beautiful gardens, good music, and even better company, we will enjoy sitting at a table full of gastronomic delicacies, looking out at some of the most spectacular views of Barcelona. Our menu will be posted on the web.

Many of you attended the Madrid Conference in 2012 and returned to your homes very satisfied. We are sure that this year's Conference in Barcelona will be even better, and in order for all of us to enjoy it at its best, I encourage you to sign up as soon as possible and reserve your hotel, to avoid last minute registrations being unable to find accommodations nearby.

Here you will find the website accommodation link as well as the promotional video of the conference.

Don't forget! We have an important event coming up in Barcelona! "EMDR, the Psychotherapy of the 21st Century" awaits us!

With affection to all!
